CAMP OOCHGEAS

A camp where every child, no matter how debilitating their illness, would be provided an opportunity to explore enriching, challenging, fun experiences through what is fondly referred to today as the Magic of Ooch.

A humanitarian who loves to give back, Peter Triantos is delighted to continue his philanthropy by continuing to the Camp Oochigeas 'Paddle Project' for childhood cancer for which he choose the renowned 'Jelly Bean' design for the paddle to be auctioned.

JELLY BEAN Piece Donated to MATTHEW HOUSE to Support Refugees

On September 27th, Peter Triantos was happy to donate a 'Jelly Bean' painting to the Matthew House, to celebrate 20 years of welcoming and accommodating refugee claimants in Toronto at the event 'Celebrating the Journey'. The event had over 200 attendees at the community cultural hub, the Daniel Spectrum, located in the Regent park neighbourhood.

Peter Triantos was honoured to participate in the history of Matthew House as there organization thrives as a vital and important community. The Matthew House is dedicated to providing a community and essential services for refugee claimants in Toronto. These services include, shelter, coaching, as well as youth and child services.

'NAPA VALLEY' Piece DONATED to Gold Medal Plate Olympics

at Metro Toronto Convention centre on October 29th, 2018

Peter was delighted to donate a beautiful artwork from the series 'Napa Valley' to the Gold Metal Plate Olympics charity event at the Metro Toronto Convention centre on October 29th. The event, 'The Great Kitchen Party' is a Canada wide event! This donation assisted in raising funds for the Canadian Olympics foundation to demonstrate that Canadian are committed to their development, passionate about their journey and proud to have them represent us on the world stage. Peter Triantos is very honoured to participate in supporting our Canadian athletes through this incredible cause.
